DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO REINSTATE CASE BACK ON DOCKET

Defendant, RODGER GAMBLE acting Pro Se hereby respectfully moves the Court to enter an Order granting Defendant's to Reinstate Case back on Court Docket. As set forth below, good cause exists for the grant of this motion. In support of this motion, Defendant states:

1. This case was dismissed by an order signed on (date): March 7, 2022.
2. The act or omission resulting in dismissal was not intentional or the result of conscious indifference but was due to an accident or mistake on my part.
3. I did not respond to the notice of dismissal before my case was dismissed because I was unaware of the court proceedings and I was not properly served by the Plaintiff.
4. The Plaintiff in this matter initiated a retaliatory eviction for possession of my dwelling for reporting a building code violation to the city of North Myrtle Beach.
5. Plaintiff misrepresented the facts to the Magistrate Court through Judge Margie Livingston, erred accepting the facts of this case without sufficient proof and abused the court's discretion when transferring my case to Judge Benjamin Culbertson, who improperly dismissed without affording me a proper hearing at the advisement of Judge Livingston.
6. At all times relevant to the dismissals relying on the Plaintiff misrepresentation of facts than one occasion, she fraudulently stated to the court that she did not receive
