James Curry, Appellant,
vs.

The State, Respondent. Why has this happened to me,

Was it an act of God.

Dear, Ms. or Mrs. Kitchings.

SC Court of Appeals

"On Feb, 17th, 2022, I received a letter from your deputy clerk dated Feb, 14, 2022, telling me that I had 10 days to submit proof of service to the court, and serve all respondents in which I complained and did so. On Feb, 18, 2022. Note. "last week I received an order from your court filed dated March 3, 2022. "stating that the proof of service provided shows service on February 18, 2022. Because appellant has failed to provide proof of timely service the appeal is dismissed."

"Ms. Kitchings from Feb, 14, 2022. the date of the 10 day notice to Feb, 18, 2022. is only 4 days "which means the order sent to me filed dated March 3, 2022. is 100% in error denying my appeal as untimely in RE: to the proof of service dated Feb, 18, 2022." Please be advised that I have submitted a motion, with two proof of service requesting my appeal be reinstated and relief be granted within 10 days on the grounds of the error committed by the S.C. Court of Appeals as prejudice, Ms, Kitchings I've been in prison 15 yrs. "trying to get a new trial, because I was wrongfully convicted under the hands of a corrupt police chief in Great Falls, S.C. named Mike Revels, "who SLED has arrested for misconduct in office for stealing money since my trial, and he was 100 terminated, "Sometimes God works in ways we don't understand, so if I can get my relief sought because of the court's error, I would very much appreciate it. (Note. I have 5 yrs. to max out, but with the new trial, I can get out of prison, and live my good life, Sooner."
