Please note Respondent's objection to this request of Appellant. These are not clarifications of prior cites in the already filed final brief(s) of Appellant. These are fully new, previously non-cited cases which clearly existed at the time of the filing of Appellant's final brief. Rule 208 does not apply here, in Respondent's opinion. Rather, this is not a supplemental cite for the Initial Brief, as discussed in Rule 208. Final Briefs have been filed with the court for approximately 2 years now. As such, Per Rule 212, the Appellant must file a Motion to supplement the Record before the court, to include the proposed cites submitted, or receive Respondent's consent to the proposed supplement to the Record. That consent must be in writing. No such consent of Respondent exists. Respondent does not agree to any supplement to the filed Briefs or the Record on Appeal. Appellant must file a Motion.

I will be submitting a letter on this tomorrow.
