RE: Baracco v. Beaufort County—Appellate Tracking Number 2021-000321
2019 CP 07 00818

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

Our final briefs are due on or before Monday, March 28, 2022. However, in preparing our final briefs, opposing counsel and I have discovered several omissions in the filed Record on Appeal. (This is the result of the case being tried remotely, and since none of us were in the same room, it was difficult to keep up with various documents.) We have worked together diligently to identify the deficiencies and prepare a supplemental Record on Appeal (Appendix) as allowed by Rule 212 of the Appellate Court Rules. We are now transmitting the proposed Appendix to Pro Legal Copies for preparation and binding. Since our Final Briefs will include references to these new page numbers, I am asking that the time to file our Final Briefs be extended for an additional twenty (20) days, making them due on or before Monday, April 18th (the 20th day falling on a Sunday). This will give us time to file the Appendix with the necessary page numbers to insert in the Final Briefs.

As I stated, I have consulted with opposing counsel, who joins in with this request. I have enclosed our firm's check in the amount of $50.00 to cover the filing fee for this request. Since this is a first request for extension and made by consent, please let me know if you require a formal motion for this extension request. I thank you in advance for your attention to this request. With kind regards, I am

Very truly yours,

Belk, Cobb, Infinger & Goldstein, P.A.
