

The State of South Carolina
[In The Supreme Court]

Appeal from The Administrative Law Court
Jocelyn Newman Chief Administrative Judge
Fifth Judicial Circuit Court
Case No: 2022-000 355

The State
v.
Matthew Jamison #267844

Respondent
Appellant

RECEIVED

APR 12 2022

S.C. SUPREME COURT

Reason why appellant should not be prohibit from filing other action, motion or petition challenging
this conviction and sentence

Matthew Jamison #267844
Live say Pre-Release
P.O. Box 580
Una, SC. 29378

M Jamison Appellant

Russell Barlow, II, Esquire
P.O. Box 11549
Columbia, S.C. 29211

Attorney for Respondent

The reason I Matthew Jamison should not be prohibit from challenging my conviction and sentence is because everthing I rise is from the records [facts]. Because of the lengthy process in my lack of rowledge I need help litigating. I'm asking this Honorable Court to appoint me an attorney to help me litigate using only the records to establish my S.C. Constitutional Violations or deprivation base on unreasonable detetermination of fact in light of the evidence presented