Trial Court Case No. 2020-CP-07-0231

APPELLATE CASE NO. 2022-000277

Georgia Harrison, Barbara Harrison,
Joyce Ellen Harrison, William S. Harrison III, Stanley Roberts, and
Diana Mendheim, Individually and As Attorney In Fact,

Respondents, vs.

Stephanie Lorraine Kirkland, Gary Lamont Kirkland,
Kieta Nicole White, and Cheryl Kirkland,

Appellants.

RESPONDENTS' AMENDED RETURN TO APPELLANTS' MOTION TO HOLD OR RECALL REMITTITUR AND TO REINSTATE
APPEAL AND TO EXTEND TIME FOR FILING
PROOF OF SERVICE

INTRODUCTION

Currently pending before this Court is the Appellants' Motion To Hold Or Recall Remittitur And To Reinstate Appeal and To Extend Time For Filing Proof Of Service, as was filed on April 1, 2022. The Motion should be denied because no good cause to reinstate the appeal has been shown as required under SCACR 260.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The Notice of Appeal in this case was filed on March 9, 2022 at 10:03 a.m. via an email filing from Appellants' Counsel Charles E. Houston, Jr. At that time, Mr. Houston's email transmittal came from his filed AIS email address of chouston@houstonlawfirm.net. No Proof of Service as required by SCACR 203(d)(1)(B)(i) was filed with the Notice of Appeal, nor were copies of the orders and judgments being challenged, as required by SCACR 203(d)(1)(B)(ii). The Clerk of the Court of Appeals acknowledged Mr. Houston's filing by return email to his AIS email address, chouston@houstonlawfirm.net at 10:15 a.m. that same day.

Several hours later, at 4:52 p.m. on March 9, 2022, the Appellants filed an Amended Notice of Appeal, attaching copies of the orders and judgments being challenged, but still not attaching nor filing a Proof of Service of either the Notice of Appeal nor the Amended Notice of Appeal. That filing email also emanated from Mr. Houston's AIS email of chouston@houstonlawfirm.net. The Clerk of the Court of Appeals acknowledged Mr. Houston's filing of his Amended Notice of Appeal by return email to his AIS email address, chouston@houstonlawfirm.net at 9:17 a.m. the following day, March 10, 2022.

On March 13, 2022 at 7:36 a.m., Mr. Houston emailed a corrected Amended Notice of Appeal to the Court, again from his AIS email address, chouston@houstonlawfirm.net. The Clerk of the Court of Appeals acknowledged Mr. Houston's filing of the corrected Amended Notice of Appeal by return email to chouston@houstonlawfirm.net, his AIS email address, at 9:00 a.m. on March 14, 2022.

On March 18, 2022, the Clerk of the Court of Appeals, pursuant to The Supreme Court's standing Order of August 25, 2021 ("Methods of Electronic Filing and Service Under Rule 262 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules," which provides that "An appellate court may send an order, opinion or other correspondence to a person admitted to practice law in South Carolina using that lawyer's primary e-mail address in AIS."), sent an email deficiency letter to Mr. Houston at both his AIS-designated, and well-used, e-mail account chouston@houstonlawfirm.net, and to another email address of charleshouston@icloud.com, advising him that his original Notice of Appeal did not include a Proof of Service, and that one had not been received as of March 18, 2022. The Clerk's deficiency letter went on to warn Mr. Houston and the Appellants that "this deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or this appeal will be dismissed...." See attached Exhibit A, the email communication and the deficiency letter. See also attached Exhibit B, a copy of Mr. Houston's AIS information setting his declared email as chouston@houstonlawfirm.net.

The March 18, 2022 email from the Clerk's office was received and acted upon by the Respondents' counsel, as it also contained a letter advising Respondents that we were to file a Return to the Appellants' Motion To Stay within ten (10) days of the March 18, 2022 letter and that Return was properly filed on March 29, 2022.

The Appellants did not file the required Proof of Service of the Notice of Appeal by March 29, 2022, and the Respondents thus filed a Motion To Dismiss that day, based upon the Appellants' failure to comply with the Court's rules and the directive of the Clerk. The Motion to Dismiss was electronically filed with the Clerk, along with a Proof of Service, and copied to Mr. Houston at his chouston@houstonlawfirm.net email address on March 29, 2022 at 1:28 p.m. See Exhibit C. The Clerk's Office emailed Mr. Houston, and Respondents' counsel, at 3:34 p.m. on March 29, 2022, advising that the Motion To Dismiss had been filed. See Exhibit D.

On March 31, 2022, the Court filed its Order dismissing the appeal because "Appellants have still failed to file a proof of service." On April 1, 2022, the Appellants filed the pending Motion To Hold or Recall Remittitur And To Reinstate Appeal and To Extend Time For Filing Proof Of Service, alleging the Order is "based on an error of fact."

ARGUMENT AND CITATION OF AUTHORITY

By their Motion, the Appellants seek to reinstate a dismissed appeal. Rule 260 SCACR controls dismissals and reinstatements and provides that the Clerk shall issue an order of dismissal "[w]henever it appears that an appellant or a petitioner has failed to comply with the requirements of these Rules...." Rule 260 SCACR further provides that "A case shall not be reinstated except by leave of court, upon good cause shown, after notice to all parties."

Thus, the determinative question is whether the Appellants have demonstrated "good cause" for having failed to initially file the requisite Proof of Service and having ignored the Clerk's deficiency letter of March 18, 2022 that clearly was properly served upon Mr. Houston by delivery to his commonly-used and AIS-designated email account of chouston@houstonlawfirm.net.

In an attempt to establish the necessary threshold of "good cause," Mr. Houston asserts in his Affidavit that he "examined the Court's records on C-track and note that the letter dated March 18, 2022, which I did not receive, was transmitted to me only via United States Mail and not via email." {Emphasis in the original} See Proof/Affidavit of Service of Mr. Houston, paragraph 6. He then states that because he did not receive a US Mail letter copy of the Clerk's March 18, 2022 letter, “I was unaware of the Court’s request to file a Proof of Service of the Notice of Appeal.” See paragraph 7.

Respectfully, these assertions simply are not true. The Clerk’s March 18, 2022 deficiency letter was sent via e-mail attachment to Mr. Houston’s AIS-listed email address as is shown on Exhibit B, pursuant to the Supreme Court’s Order on electronic transmission. This is the exact same way the Clerk has communicated with Mr. Houston and Respondents’ counsel on numerous occasions both prior to and after March 18, 2022. It is the exact way the Order of Dismissal was served upon the Appellants’ counsel on March 31, 2022, which Mr. Houston responded to by this Motion on April 1, 2022. And, perhaps most importantly to the overall consideration of the Motion, the Appellants have misstated both what the March 31, 2022 Order states concerning the March 18, 2022 deficiency letter and what the “C-track” system shows about that letter.

The Court’s Order of Dismissal does not say that the Clerk mailed the March 18, 2022 deficiency letter in US Mail, as is asserted in Mr. Houston’s Affidavit. It simply says the Appellants were notified by letter of March 18, 2022, which they were — via e-mail attachment as is normal this day and time. Further, the “C-track” system does not “note” that the March 18, 2022 letter “was transmitted to [Mr. Houston] only via United States Mail and not via email” as Mr. Houston alleges in his Affidavit at paragraph 6. That is simply untrue. A review of the “C-track” system, as is shown on Exhibit E, shows that the deficiency letter of March 18, 2022 was simply served that day, which it was, via email. There is nothing on the C-track system indicating US Mail delivery, and certainly nothing that shows only US Mail delivery.

Perhaps most enlightening to this issue is the fact that Appellants’ counsel does not assert in his Affidavit that he did not receive the deficiency letter through his email account, which he acknowledges in his Affidavit repeatedly, is the method of service of both pleadings and notices used in this appeal. His single assertion of “good cause” rests upon a facially unsupportable claim that the deficiency letter was lost in the US Mail; however, it was never placed in the US Mail by the Clerk and thus could not have been lost. It was served upon the Appellants’ counsel via email transmittal, that was also addressed to, delivered to, and received by, both of Respondents’ counsel.

For whatever reason, the Appellants failed or refused to comply with this Court’s rules regarding the necessity of prompt filing of a Proof of Service of the Notice of Appeal, and then ignored the Clerk’s deficiency letter of March 18, 2022, which was properly served upon Appellants’ counsel through his AIS e-mail address. No good cause for ignoring the e-mail warning or the rules having been shown, the Motion to Reinstate should be denied.

Respectfully submitted this 12th day of April, 2022.

Appellants filed their Notice of Appeal on March 9, 2022, and then filed an Amended Notice of Appeal on March 14, 2022. On March 18, 2022, the Clerk of Court issued a letter to Appellants' Counsel advising that a Proof Of Service had not been provided with the Notice of Appeal, and instructed the Appellants' counsel that if the deficiency was not corrected within ten

(10) days of March 18, 2022, the appeal would be dismissed. A true and correct copy of the Clerk's letter is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

There having been no Proof of Service filed, the Respondents move the Court to dismiss the appeal immediately.

Respondents advise the Court that because this Motion To Dismiss is based solely upon the Rules and the March 18, 2022 letter of the Clerk, no memorandum nor Affidavits are appropriate to be filed.

WHEREFORE, the Respondents move the Court to Dismiss the Appeal.

RESPONDENTS' MOTION TO DISMISS APPEAL

Appellants filed their Notice of Appeal on March 9, 2022, and then filed an Amended Notice of Appeal on March 14, 2022. On March 18, 2022, the Clerk of Court issued a letter to Appellants' Counsel advising that a Proof Of Service had not been provided with the Notice of Appeal, and instructed the Appellants' counsel that if the deficiency was not corrected within ten

(10) days of March 18, 2022, the appeal would be dismissed. A true and correct copy of the Clerk's letter is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

There having been no Proof of Service filed, the Respondents move the Court to dismiss the appeal immediately.

Respondents advise the Court that because this Motion To Dismiss is based solely upon the Rules and the March 18, 2022 letter of the Clerk, no memorandum nor Affidavits are appropriate to be filed.

WHEREFORE, the Respondents move the Court to Dismiss the Appeal.

Re: Georgia Harrison v. Stephanie Kirkland
Appellate Case No. 2022-000277

Dear Counsel:

Upon reviewing your notice of appeal, the following deficiency has been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and this deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or this appeal will be dismissed:

- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.

Very truly yours,
