STATUS REPORT

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Joel W. Collins Jr. and I represent the Appellant in the above-captioned matter. Please allow this letter to serve as a status report as directed by the Court of Appeals pursuant to the Order of Remand filed on April 2, 2012. The purpose of remand is to reconstruct the record due to the court reporter losing the transcript. Since the issuance of that order, the Charleston County Clerk of Court has not yet scheduled a hearing. The undersigned has written to Circuit Court Judge J.C. Nicholson advising him of the need to hold a reconstruction hearing and requesting a status conference to discuss this matter, if advisable.

Should you need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me. Counsel for the Respondent is copied to this communication with the court.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Robert F. Goings". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, looped "G".
Robert F. Goings
