

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Randy Drummond, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2013-000556

Lower Court Case No. 2011-CP-23-008002

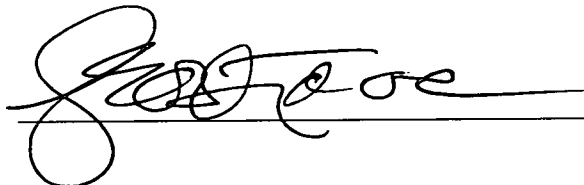

ORDER

In November 1, 2004, petitioner pled guilty to the charges in 2003-GS-23-007486 and 2003-GS-23-009072. This is the fourth post-conviction relief application that petitioner has filed challenging those guilty pleas, and the circuit court dismissed this application as being barred as successive and as being untimely under the statute of limitations.

The request for an emergency appeal has been construed as a motion to allow the late filing of the notice of appeal dated August 16, 2012. The motion is granted.

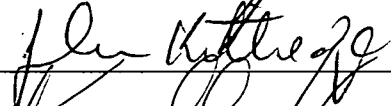

In the explanation required by Rule 243(c) of South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), petitioner has failed to show that there is an arguable basis for asserting that the determination by the lower court was improper. Accordingly, this matter is dismissed. The remittitur will be sent as provided by Rule 221(b), SCACR.

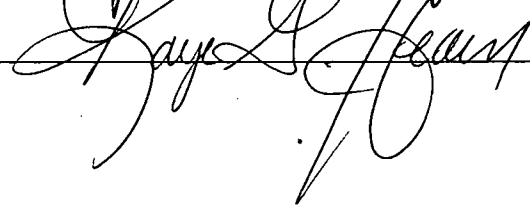

Further, this Court hereby prohibits petitioner from filing any further post-conviction relief applications, petitions for a writ of habeas corpus or other collateral actions in the circuit court challenging the convictions and sentences arising from the above guilty pleas without first obtaining the permission of this Court to make such a filing.
