Dear Ms. Hiskell:

This is a formal request to obtain a properly formatted copy of page number 20 of the above-referenced transcript. After repeated attempts via electronic mail correspondence from myself and Sharon Graham of our office to obtain the properly formatted missing page, we have had to ask the Supreme Court to place this matter into abeyance. I have enclosed a copy of that letter for your files.

Re: John G. Kimble v. State of South Carolina
Appellate Case No. 2012-213572

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

The petition for writ of certiorari in the above case is due to be served and filed on June 6, 2013. However, in preparing the appendix we have discovered that a page of the transcript was missing that included pronouncements from the court. We have requested the missing page, and have enclosed a copy of that request with this letter.

Accordingly, I respectfully request that the time limits for filing the petition for writ of certiorari and appendix in this case be held in abeyance pending receipt of the transcript page. If you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me at your convenience.

By copy of this letter, I am informing Karen Ratigan, of the Attorney General's Office, of my request.

Sincerely,

Breen R. Stevens
Appellate Defender
