Good Afternoon,

My apologies for contacting you via this email which I understand is to be used for filing documents but I was unable to reach anyone by phone this afternoon.

Earlier this morning, we e-filed a notice of appeal, petition and other supporting documentation in the above referenced matter. With that e-filing were a series of exhibits which we did not believe were covered by the existing confidentiality order.

We then delivered paper copies of the exhibits which we believed were covered by the confidentiality order with a cover letter and our firm check for the filing fee due.

In reviewing the filed documents on the public index, I see that our confidential exhibits are scanned into the computer and appear as pages 26-237 to our motion.

Can you please assist us to review this and remove the confidential pages?

Thank you!

Lynn G. Ivey
