Appellate CA No: 2012-213306

Judicial Notice and Complaint

Michael E. Minor;

- Petitioner

- Vs. -

State Of South Carolina,

- Respondant

Judicial Notice and Complaint

Henceforth, cometh the petitioner, before this Honorable court, pursuant to rule 201CD SCRE, through undersigned counsel, (Robert Paebak), to so more before this Honorable Court to take Judicial Notice,

Of the fact of the matter, that petitioner received Legal Correspondence via mail, from prior P.C.R. Counsel dated April 25, 2013, stating and quoting the fact of the matter, that Prior P.C.R. counsel in the correspondence informed, petitioner that he received a call from some men of the Appellate defense, whom informed P.C.R. counsel that (2) two of petitioner's exhibits that were introduced at the P.C.R. hearing, are apparently not only missing but "lost", by the Greenwood County Clerk Of Court's - being a correspondance to petitioner from a Counselor John Compton; and an affidavit from petitioner's wife regarding taking full responsibility for (drugs) meth. found in their possession,

Of such; petitioner was not made aware of such; until certain materials and Legal documents, were requested by petitioner, in such is the same dilemma, that as to petitioner being informed prior by this court; that his case is due April 26, 2013, but may have several extensions; regarding this matter; petitioner states that such was appellate Counsel's duty to inform of such; and not the courts, or Prior P.C.R. counsel; and Last, pursuant to the Rules (207 SCACR); petitioner have yet to receive his Transcripts.

Re: Michael E. Minor, #255855 v. State of South Carolina

Dear Michael:

I am sending you all the paperwork I have about your PCR in response to your request dated April 8, 2013. I got a call from a man at Appellate Defense about the two (2) exhibits introduced at your PCR hearing that the Greenwood County Clerk of Court has apparently lost. They need them for your appeal. I think the first exhibit is a letter to you from John Compton. The second is your wife Bonnie's affidavit taking responsibility for the meth. I don't have those and believe my copies were in the paperwork I gave you at the end of the hearing. If you have copies of those, send them to Sean Flynn at the Office of Appellate Defense, P.O. Box 11433, Columbia, SC, 29211-1433.

Michael, I re-read your letter and I don't have your "Austin petition transcripts" or "case file". I recall giving you back your personal copies that I had taken to make copies of for the hearing. I never keep the client's copies or I would need a warehouse to store all of it. I remember talking to Bonnie after the hearing, too, but I don't remember giving her anything.

Good luck with your appeal, Michael. I'm pulling for you!

Sincerely,

David E. Belding
