Re: Allan Murray, et al. v. Newberry County, South Carolina
Appellate Case No. 2022-000276
HSB File No. 03657.0074

Dear Ms. Allen:

I am counsel for the Respondent Newberry County in the above-captioned matter. I write to provide additional information with respect to your letter dated yesterday, May 17, 2022, to Appellants' counsel, S. Jahue Moore, Esq.

Appellants had requested a transcript of the January 15, 2021, hearing in this case from the court reporter (Ms. Joy E. Holston) on March 7, 2022, and had provided Ms. Kitchings of this Court a copy of that request. Your letter of yesterday inquired about the timeliness of the transcript's preparation and the timeliness of Appellants' opening brief.

I had requested that transcript shortly after the hearing in early 2021. I received it from the court reporter on February 16, 2021, more than 12 months prior to the noticing of this appeal. By letter to counsel for the Appellants and to the court reporter on April 8, 2022 (with typographical error corrected by additional letter on April 11, 2022), I advised Appellants' counsel and the court reporter that I had already requested and received the transcript. I included in the April 8 letter a copy of the transcript to each of the court reporter and Appellants' counsel.

Copies of my April 8 and April 11 correspondence (without the transcript) are attached to this letter.

In short, counsel for Appellants and the court reporter have been in possession of a copy of the requested transcript since April 8, 2022.
