CONSENT MOTION TO DISMISS APPEAL

---

The parties to this appeal, by and through their undersigned counsel, represent the following to the Court:

1. The parties have reached a monetary settlement that resolves all disputes between them.
2. In exchange for payment of the agreed-upon sum by or on behalf of Petitioner, Respondent will execute a Satisfaction of Judgment and consent to it being filed in the appropriate court.
3. The settlement has rendered moot the issues raised in Petitioner's appeal.
4. Petitioner, therefore, wishes to dismiss his appeal, and Respondent consents.

5. The parties agree to bear their own costs and attorney's fees, and both parties agree not to seek an award of costs or fees of any kind in this Court, the Court of Appeals or the Circuit Court.

For these reasons, the parties jointly request that the Court dismiss this appeal and remand this action to the Circuit Court for the filing of a Satisfaction of Judgment. The parties further request that the Court hold all current deadlines in abeyance pending a ruling on this motion.
