Re: Palmetto Pointe v. Tri-County Roofing
Appellate Case No. 2018-001790

Dear Mrs. Allen:

I am in receipt of your June 1, 2022 letter from the Court of Appeals asking for conflicts with scheduling this case for oral arguments in September or October of this year. Please note that I joined the South Carolina Attorney General's office on May 2, 2022, and no longer need be copied on these letters. I understand you already received notices of appearance from Christian Stegmaier and Jamie Williams from Collins & Lacy, who are now appearing for the appellant in this case. Although I no longer work at Collins & Lacy, I do intend to watch these arguments when they are scheduled later this year.

Please let me know if you require anything further from me. Also, by copy of this letter, I am informing the other attorneys involved in this case by email of my contact with the Court of Appeals.

Sincerely,

Andrew N. Cole
Assistant Attorney General
