William,

I got a delivery failure notice on my attempt to copy you on my filing yesterday. I am so sorry. I have no idea why, but the email I used was WilliamBlitch@scag.gov. I thought it popped up in my regularly used email addresses, but perhaps not. However it happened, I apologize. I had until this coming Monday to file the petition so hopefully, the Court will forgive me for not serving you correctly until today. Thanks. Please make note that I am still using tdshurling@aol.com as my firm's email for the time being. It is a long story that I will not bore you with, but GoDaddy has royally messed up my account with them and I am having a terrible time getting them to straighten it out. I did register my aol account with AIS, but wanted to be sure you knew I was using it until I get my GpDaddy account up again. Yes, I did pay their bill! I have a zero balance due. lol.

I was sad when I saw the delivery failure notice. All too often, that happens when someone has left the agency. There seems to be a lot of turnover lately at the AG's Office. Sometimes I feel like I just got acquainted with someone and they leave! I am glad to know you are still there. Hope you and your family are doing well.

Attached please find for filing my Petition to have Amended Initial Brief of Appellant and DOM, submitted to the court on May 17, 2022, accepted as timely filed. By copy of this email, Counsel has served opposing counsel with this petition. Mr. Blich was served with the Amended Initial Brief of Appellant and her DOM when it was submitted to the Court on May 17, 2022. A copy of that submission is also attached.

Thank you as always for your kind assistance in filing this petition.
