Come now the parties to the above-captioned appeal and would respectfully show the Court as follows:

1. The parties have timely filed their initial briefs and designation of matter.
2. The record on appeal was filed.
3. In the course of preparing the parties' final briefs, the parties discovered that a supplemental record was required. Accordingly, Appellant-Respondent has filed a motion to supplement the record, which is still pending.
4. The due date for the final briefs is currently June 13, 2022. No prior extensions have been sought or received.
5. To enable the parties time to receive ruling on the motion to supplement the record before preparing their final briefs, the parties jointly request that the deadline be extended to and including June 23, 2022.
6. Additionally, as further justification for the short extension, counsel for the parties report that they have been engaged in other matters, including a federal criminal jury trial by Decide4Action, Inc.'s counsel, which ended yesterday.
7. The $50 motion fee is being sent by check to the Clerk's Office.

Dated this 9th day of June, 2022

Respectfully submitted,

JULIA SIBLEY-JONES
